Letter from the Editor

Greetings, Brethren!

I hope you all had a happy fourth of July and had adequate time to spend with your families and friends. With Grand Lodge sessions over, I wanted to take the time to congratulate our new MW Grand Master Jim H. Baker as well as our very own RW Deputy Grand Master George Rusk. I can see interesting and excellent times our ahead for our fraternity and I want to thank our entire Grand Line as well as our members for continuously making masonry bigger and better in our state. To update everyone on the status of this board, I am going to be trying to make a commitment to release bi-monthly trestle board articles on the first and third Tuesdays of each month to update our members on current events of the lodge, as well as presenting on educational topics and articles that I believe many of our members would enjoy reading in their leisure time. If anyone wants to write an article for the trestle board or has an idea for an educational topic that you want to present in lodge, please contact me at dylanm722@gmail.com.

Fraternally,
Dylan Martin

Masonic Research

One of the things that inspired me to get into Freemasonry was the opportunity to meet and converse with fellow brothers and friends about topics that are educational and related to the history of this monumental group. Masonic Research is an important tool and in my opinion one of the best parts of Masonry. There is just so much to explore and discover when it comes to the world of Masonry, there are so many library's and archives of masonic knowledge that can be found. Very Recently, I also discovered the Masonic Society which is a group of masons dedicated to the research of the craft and publishes a journal of educational topics and articles that are a very good read for those interested in pursuing masonic research or just to get more light on a variety of topics in general. In conclusion, I would recommend to every brother to try and delve into some research you enjoy in masonry, whatever it may be and then once you have the light you seek, please share that light with your brethren so that we all may enlightened together.

Back To School Drive

Back To School Drive

Back to School time is coming up, which means it's time to start thinking about school supply shopping.

Our Back to School Drive runs July 11th through July 22nd.

On behalf of the kiddos at New Horizon Community Care who will benefit from the school materials received during the Back to School Drive, I want to thank everyone who has decided to participate in this drive.

Students who could otherwise not afford such supplies will have the opportunity to have these items for their use at the beginning of the school year. Thank you for caring about the needs of our kiddos.

New Horizon Community Care is a place of purpose, commitment and integrity. Our mission is to serve, influence and empower others to reach their full potential.

Together, with your support, we will be able to make a difference in our kid's lives.

Thank you from all of us at New Horizon Community Care. It's all about the kids!

Yours truly,

Patty Gladney
