The Oriental Trestle Board provides us with a great opportunity to celebrate our lodge and members. One of our greatest assets is our history. I want to encourage everyone to help document our work here at the lodge and in the community.

Please submit your photos, articles and insights that we can publish in upcoming issues of the Trestle Board. I am still looking for anecdotes about the lodge, members and it's history.

Thank you to those that have taken the time to contribute to this publication.

Fraternally, Br. Marc

AUGUST 2023

As Freemasons, we are bound together by a shared commitment to uphold the principles that underpin our ancient and honorable fraternity. Among these foundational principles, the Four Cardinal Virtues stand tall as beacons of moral guidance: Temperance, Fortitude, Prudence, and Justice. These virtues, when integrated into our daily lives, not only enrich our individual characters but also contribute to the betterment of society.

Let us explore each virtue and discover how we can represent them in our daily endeavors.

Temperance:

Temperance is the virtue of moderation and self-control. In our fast-paced world, it is easy to fall prey to excess and indulgence, be it in our personal habits or professional pursuits. To embody Temperance, we must learn to strike a balance in all aspects of our lives. This means moderating our desires, avoiding extremes, and practicing self-restraint when faced with temptations.

As Freemasons, we can symbolize Temperance by maintaining harmony within our Lodge and promoting a sense of unity and understanding among our brethren. By listening attentively, respecting diverse viewpoints, and seeking common ground, we can foster an environment that encourages balanced decision-making and thoughtful introspection.

Fortitude:

Fortitude, often referred to as courage, is the virtue that enables us to confront challenges with inner strength and perseverance. It is the resolve to withstand adversity, uphold our convictions, and stay steadfast in the face of adversity. To embody Fortitude, we must embrace life's uncertainties with grace, acknowledging that failure is an essential part of growth.

As Freemasons, we can demonstrate Fortitude by actively engaging in charitable endeavors and supporting our brethren during times of hardship. By offering a helping hand to those in need and facing our own challenges with resilience, we exemplify the true essence of this virtue.

Prudence:

Prudence is the virtue of wise judgment and practical decision-making. It involves the careful consideration of consequences and a thoughtful approach to problem-solving. As Freemasons, we must exercise Prudence in our actions, words, and interactions with others. This means thinking before we speak, analyzing situations with clarity, and seeking counsel when necessary.

To represent Prudence in our daily lives, let us actively engage in continuing education and intellectual growth. By embracing a thirst for knowledge and sharing insights with our brethren, we contribute to a more enlightened and thoughtful Masonic community.

Justice:

Justice, the pinnacle of the Four Cardinal Virtues, is the foundation of a fair and equitable society. It embodies the impartial treatment of all individuals, regardless of their background or status. As Freemasons, we must strive to be just in our dealings with others, promoting equality and acting as advocates for those who have been wronged.

To manifest Justice, we must champion ethical behavior both within and outside the Lodge. By upholding the principles of truth, honesty, and fairness, we can inspire others to follow suit and build a more just world for generations to come.

In conclusion, the Four Cardinal Virtues are not merely abstract ideals, but a compass that guides us towards becoming better human beings and Freemasons. By embodying Temperance, Fortitude, Prudence, and Justice in our daily lives, we strengthen the very fabric of our fraternity and leave a positive impact on the world around us.

As we continue our Masonic journey, let us remember that true greatness lies not in the grandiose acts we perform but in the consistent embodiment of these virtues in our thoughts, actions, and characters. Together, let us cultivate these virtues within ourselves, striving to become exemplary men who lead by example and inspire others to follow suit.

Regards,

Justin Stevens

Worshipful Master

Greetings from the West!

Brethren, July 2023 was a great month for Freemasonry at Oriental Lodge #20. So many brothers have stepped up and consistently shown their fervency and zeal for the Craft. Once again, I would like to acknowledge Brother Marc Geyer's ongoing efforts and commitment to ensuring that the brethren and our visitors have a time of fellowship and communion with a great meal and a bit of Masonic education each week. The turnout for these meals has been exceptional! In addition to Brother Marc, I want to acknowledge the Entered Apprentices who always show up, roll up their sleeves, and serve the greater good of the Lodge in any way they can.

Brother Jason Michael Clark's Entered Apprentice degree was one to be remembered. I want to personally thank all of the officers who stepped up and made that degree the success that it was. Brother Andrew Long did an exceptional job as SD and I know it meant a great deal to Brother Jason. Thank you, Brother Andrew, for not only performing this duty but also bringing the visiting guests from Phoenix Lodge #2.

Our DDGM, WB David Fierro, was also in attendance with Acacia Lodge #42. Thank you, WB David, for your delivery of the Charge for Brother Jason and for bringing what seemed like your entire Lodge with you! Finally, Brother Frank Donald did an exemplary job with his perfect delivery of the EA Lecture... once again. Congratulations, Brother Frank on achieving your first proficiency of many to come!

Gearing up for the months ahead, I look forward to many EA proficiencies as we begin to advance our newest brothers through the degrees by passing them to the degree of FC. So many men with a great deal of energy toward the Craft have joined us this year. Please take the time to become acquainted with each of them and support them in any way that you can in their Masonic journeys... as all brothers and fellows have done who have gone this way before.

Fraternally,

SW Michael Harris

Greetings from the South.

In 1983, our great country experienced a time of economic rebound as we began one of the most prolonged periods of growth since World War 2. Ronald Reagan was president, Motorola introduced the DynaTAC 8000X, which was the first commercially available cellular mobile phone (fondly called “The Brick”) which cost $3995 (Equivalent to $11,250 today), and ARPANET officially changed to use the Internet Protocol, creating the Internet.

Life was good, and the Arizona Grand Lodge had just finished celebrating its 100th Anniversary.

Oriental elected a new Worshipful Master who ascended to the East in just four and a half short years. Initiated on 2/21/78, passed on 4/11/78, and raised on 5/23/78, Worshipful Brother Kenneth Eugene Frazee was a well-known Mesa businessman—another of a long line of lodge Masters born and raised in Arizona. A jeweler by trade, his business, Ken Frazee Jewelers, operated for many years at 130 W. Main St. next to Pomeroy’s.

There is little doubt that his successful business complemented his service to the Lodge until his passing. While there were no significant milestones I could find for the Lodge during 1983, his steadfast service to the craft was another vital link in the growth chain that makes Oriental Lodge No. 20 the great Lodge it is today.

WB Kenneth Frazee was called to the Celestial Lodge on September 9th, 1993, at the age of 59.

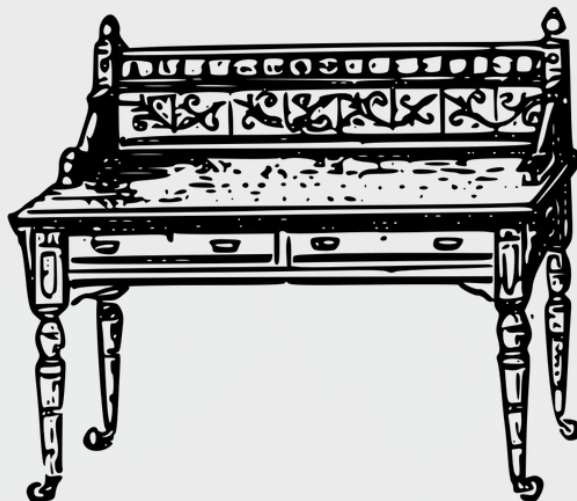

Fraternally,
Marc Geyer
Junior Warden

From the Secretaries Table:

Proficiency, One of the Keys to Masonry.

We are all familiar with the proficiency requirements for the three degrees of Freemasonry. It's the portion of our ritual that everyone must memorize. It's augmented by a well-written education packet that complements each degree with more details for understanding their meaning.

You should have received the education packet for each degree as you completed the degree. If you are a Master Mason, and have been one for a while, you may be inclined to ask me for new copies of the education packet. They have been updated significantly since I joined our fraternity, and they have improved significantly. Take a look, you won't be wasting your time!

For each degree, we determine proficiency by two separate criteria. You can select to work on the short-form or the long-form. Either path requires memorization of words which are, at the time, unfamiliar. What's the purpose?

Through memorization, we are expected to contemplate and better understand the "what" and "why" of the words (and actions) we are committing to memory. Memorization is aided by understanding, and understanding is aided by memorization.

All Master Masons complete proficiency requirements for each degree, otherwise you would not be able to enjoy the rights and privileges of our Lodge. This is the fraternity's way of starting you on a path to achieve Freemasonry's objectives.

There is another set of proficiency requirements you must complete to be eligible to be elected to the officer stations in the South, West, or East of a Lodge. These are more extensive, but they really just build on the requirements for being a proficient Master Mason.

Attend and support Br Michael as he completes the proficiency requirements for serving in the East next year. Conferring the 3rd Degree and giving one of our Lectures is a big job.

Ask Brs. Jeremy, Marc, and Michael what they have learned by completing their proficiencies as they have progressed through the officer chairs. I think they'll tell you they better understand how we open and confer degrees. What distinguishes each of the degrees, and also about the Officers of the Lodge, how they interact, and what their duties are in the Lodge.

So, it occurs to me that just maybe proficiency is not meant to be distinct steps that we go through when we want to join and to take on leadership positions in the Lodge. Maybe it is instead intended to place before all members a pattern for achieving the underlying objectives of our fraternity -- one step at a time.

A continuing practice of learning, contemplating (memorizing), and acting on what you've learned.

What a pleasure it is when a Steward, Marshal, or sideliner performs and perfects a key part of a Degree's Ritual, such as a Charge, Apron Lecture, or the G-Lecture. For them it is not just memorizing, it's also standing and delivering during a degree.

Congratulations to all who have done that for the first time this year.

Learning and performing our ritual is one way you can set yourself on a path to achieve the underlying objectives of our fraternity -- building your temple. Of course there are other ways. For example, offer an education on a topic relevant to Freemasonry. We have excellent examples of this at each of our meetings. I encourage you. Don't sit on the sidelines, as an officer or as a brother; put the opportunities of the fraternity to work for you.

Fraternally,
Tim Lindquist, PM
Secretary

July 15th—Landscape Crew

The temperature in Mesa on July 15th hit 113 degrees and the landscape volunteers started that Saturday morning working hard to clean up around the lodge. Finishing their work before you could fry an egg on the pavement, the crew moved indoors to enjoy a great breakfast of Chorizo, eggs, bacon, sausage and great fellowship.

PATIENCE

Dear Brothers,

I have been trying to be more patient with the world and take the time to appreciate things around me. Patience is an often-overlooked virtue that inexplicably requires great concentration, and which I think is an appreciable struggle in many of our lives. One example of which is speeding. I have been known to rush to arrive at my destination, to bypass the required patience and somehow arrive at my destination sooner. Yet, on a 60-mile journey at 60 miles per hour (a one-hour trip), speeding by 10 miles per hour only cuts the trip by a little more than 8 minutes. It is a trivial amount of time, and you still must wait 51 minutes! Waiting is often not simply optional; it is a mandatory feature of the world. To be patient is to accept the wait, to enjoy the breeze, and see the world's light at that very moment.

For some reason though, even great men try, and rarely succeed, to circumvent patience. Directors rush projects, presidents make hasty decisions. I am sure that even King Solomon felt somewhat hurried to finish his temple. Even in Masonry we can be impatient with ourselves and miss some great things in the craft, things often hidden in subtle symbols. Some of Albert Pike's work comes from a place of explaining these hidden symbols, which can often only be understood through patience and careful contemplation.

This is not to say that impatience is useless! It can indeed be a great motivator. Sometimes, it is good to elicit impatience within us to aid us in making decisions. Some quotes that help with this are "indecision leads to a decision," and "a good plan violently executed right now is better than a perfect plan next week", (General George Patton) which influence us to act. Even while acting, however, it is important to be patient with ourselves and those around us, and to empathize with struggles and fortunes alike.

Patience is an unspoken, crucial element in faith, hope, and charity alike. As faith ends in sight and hope ends in fruition, patience is certainly needed to get there. Without patience, faith may be lost and forgotten, and hope may fade away. Let us not forget to be patient and appreciate the ground on which we walk, built for us by brethren of the past.

Fraternally,

Ryan Sparks, JS

INTRODUCING

Our Mission

► We are committed to helping those with chronic illness deal with the high cost of medical care, prescriptions and co-pays. We understand hardships are caused for basic living needs when one is living with a chronic illness. Our organization is committed to operating with integrity and excellence while providing service.

ORIENTAL 20 TRAVELING MEN

Br. Marc Geyer, JW, had the opportunity to visit Federal Lodge No. 1 In Washington D.C. for one of their Stated Meetings in July. He presented, WM Dr. Wayne Brough, with our newly elected Grand Masters coin. Federal Lodge No. 1 was chartered in 1793 and is part of the Grand Lodge of Free and Accepted Masons of the District of Columbia, and was the first Masonic lodge established in the City of Washington.

AFTER THOUGHTS

Brethren You Hold The Keys

Each of us holds a set of keys in Masonry. These keys are unique and very valuable. We need your keys. You can open doors nobody else can open. The door you open may change someone's life.

How can I make a difference?

Bring your keys to dinner at the Lodge on Tuesday evening

Beginning in March - The lodge will be hosting dinner every Tuesday. Bring a friend, your spouse or ? - We will be presenting a, "TED talk" type Masonic topic at every dinner. After dinner stay and enjoy our Friend to Friend program, lodge room activities or say goodnight.

Bring your keys to the Friend to Friend Program

The Friend to Friend program meets on the 2nd and 4th Tuesdays of the month. The program was initiated to allow individuals who were interested in Masonry to ask questions and get acquainted with the brethren.

Bring your keys into the Lodge

Simply put, your butt in a lodge chair can be the most important key. Think back to when you went through your degrees. If you were once an officer, think back to your journey in or through the chairs. The sidelines are where the coaches and ritual fans are. Your attendance is important to both the candidates and officers.

The added bonus of your keys is the support they provide across our fraternity. Just your presence supports our youth groups and Friend to Friend program. By simply coming by the lodge on at 6pm on Tuesday for dinner and fellowship your keys open doors.
